To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Education Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

Subject:- Delegation of powers by the Director of Archaeology in Mysore, Mysore to the Asst. Director of Archaeology or other gazetted Officers.

"X"

Refce:- G.O.No.C.& D.526-7/Arch.55-2 dated 5th May 1955.

"X" 1) I would invite your reference to the Government Order cited above authorising the Director of Archaeology in Mysore, Mysore, to delegate the powers to sign all bills, viz., Establishment Pay Bills, T.A.Bills, D.C. Bills, etc. of his office to the Asst. Director or other Gazetted Officers. The delegation of power sanctioned in the Government Order is in order in respect of the Establishment Pay Bills and D.C. Bills. Regarding T.A. bills, Article 559 of the M.S.R. specifically states that a controlling officer may not delegate the duty of countersignature to a subordinate. As the sanction of Government relating to delegation of powers to sign T.A. Bills contravenes the provision of Art.559 of the M.S.R. I would request you kindly to re-examine the Government order and amend it suitably.

S.B.W.

Yours faithfully,

(N. Venkataramiah)
Assistant Accounts Officer.
